COMPARING FORCES

AND DISCUSSING CHANCES

War Fever Has Laid Hold of the French People, and the Issue Depends on Germany's Attitude

Paris, June 26.—For the first time since the Fashoda incident the French people are in the throes of war fever, whether it will result in anything serious depends on Germany's response to the French note, but without considering the status of negotiations a considerable element of the public and the press seriously discuss the possibility of a resort to arms. Army circles are particularly active and in the military clubs officers are engaged in comparing the forces of France and Germany. While financial dealers scout the idea of war yet the speculative element has been quick to seize the opportunity to raise French rentes which when they closed showed a fall of one franc and eight centimes.

TALKS OF ATHABASCA

Calgary, Alberta: R. F. Bredin, one of the pioneers of the far north, whose post office address is Lesser Slave Lake, and whose business relations cover the whole of that country known as Athabasca is in the city, returning from a trip to Eastern Canada.

Mr. Bredin has a most abiding faith in the far north country. He has explored the country as no other man has, and with every year of knowledge, his enthusiasm for this, the newest part of Canada, grows. For some years he has been in the habit of periodically emerging from his distant habitation to tell the world of its wonderful possibilities and golden future. And now that the Athabasca district will soon be coming into its own, or will soon have a possibility of coming into its own, Mr. Bredin's faith does not wane.

Mr. Bredin makes the prediction that before the present generation province of Alberta now known as Athabasca will exceed in wealth and population the remaining part of the province.

"We could be a self contained country," said Mr. Bredin. "We grow grain, though grain-raising is in its infancy. In the Peace river country there will be fifteen thousand bushels of wheat, harvested this year. We have a good grazing country too, and now two thousand and five hundred cattle are grazing on the prairies. We have in the Lesser Slave Lake one of the greatest homes for fish on the continent. Last year nineteen carloads of fish were shipped from this place. Of course the great industry in the north is the fur industry. The value of trade is up in the hundreds of thousands. We have coal and gas. We have timber. We have oil and salt and we have fast running streams for the generation of power. We have climate and scenery. It will some day be a paradise for the tourist.

The agricultural possibilities of the district Mr. Bredin believes to be past the experimental stage. In the unorganized district there are vast tracts of land which are unequalled for richness in all Canada. These lands will not be occupied to any extent until the new transcontinental approaches the west. He urges no one to enter the district until that time.

Mr. Bredin does not believe that Athabasca district is getting the best of it in representation in the new province. He believes that there will be 2900 votes in the two ridings, and as the unit is supposed to be 800, neither will be over represented.

It is expected that Mr. Bredin will be a candidate for one of the districts. It is safe to say that no better man could be found to represent the far north.

HELD FAREWELL SERVICE

The McMaster band of revivalists held the last meeting of the series in the rink last evening. A record-breaking crowd was in attendance the full capacity of the rink being occupied. It is estimated that there were considerably over 2,000 in the hall. During the progress of the service an accident happened which might have had serious results. One of the large are lights fell in the midst of the audience. The breaking of the glass caused it to fly in all directions, badly injuring several of the nearby spectators. The combined choir sang, and the Harmony Male Quartette furnished some excellent music. This band of young men have met with a very decided success, since they came to the city about ten days ago, many having professed a desire to become Christians and lead better lives through the efforts of the band. They have today, going down the line to different points.

MASONS ATTEND SERVICE

The Masons of Edmonton attended Divine service in the rink yesterday afternoon when an impressive service was conducted by Rev. H. A. Gray. The brethren assembled at the hall and marched in regalia to the rink. The service was public and was attended by a large number who do not belong to the order.

The music was provided by Clarke's orchestra and a small choir under the leadership of Mr. Barford led the singing and rendered an excellent anthem.

The address by Rev. H. A. Gray was founded upon Genesis 1:1-27-28, and was a powerful appeal to Masons to square their lives by the principles of the Great Architect, that when called hence they might be found worthy of a place in the Temple eternal in the Heavens.

A collection was taken up during the service for the benefit of the public hospital.

ASTLEYVILLE

Sturgeon Valley, June 26.—The public meeting held in the school on the 11th inst., to discuss the political situation was fairly well attended.

We notice that the loads of freight for the north are not quite so plentiful at present as formerly.

Owing to the frequent showers and warm weather the crops are making excellent progress, and are easily in advance of what they were this time last year.

Rev. Mr. Hodgins, Methodist minister has been removed to Airdrie, Alta. During his stay here he has made many friends and was well liked by all with whom he came in contact.

A large number of teams are seen daily traversing this road drawing ties for Huff & Carter.

Mr. Powyer has taken a contract from the Government to dig the corner wholes in four townships. Several have gone from here to help him.

A number of bears have been seen in this vicinity lately, and your correspondent has a bear story which he will give as soon as he gets all the details.

TERRIBLE SCENES

ENACTED IN A POLISH CITY.

Ten Regiments Encamped at Lodz to Maintain Order—Fighting Spirit of the Polish People Aroused.

Lodz, June 26.—The city resembles a shambles, and the terrible scenes of the last two days will never be wiped from the memory of the Polish people. There are ten regiments encamped at Lodz and the fighting spirit of the people is fully aroused. They have tasted blood and want more. The revolutionary spirit is abroad, and it remains to be seen whether the military measures will have the same effect in checking it as they previously had. In a suburb four Cossacks were killed and sixteen injured by a bomb thrown into the barracks. Twenty-three horses were also killed. Occasional volleys are still fired by the police in response to shots from houses. Soldiers are showing wanton cruelty. They killed three women yesterday. The funerals of the victims of Thursday and Friday took place today. It is impossible to give the exact number of killed. Certainly the killed will number 200, wounded 1,000 workmen. Six soldiers have been killed. The disorder is spreading to Warsaw and the rest of Poland.

—The Gem restaurant, Strathcona, was burned early Sunday morning. The restaurant was run by Riley Bros. in a building on West Railway street in the rear of the Parrish block. The fire was discovered shortly before five o'clock and the brigade turned out and prevented it spreading to the adjoining block. The building and contents were destroyed.

UNNECESSARILY ALARMED

The Winnipeg Telegram announces that it has discovered a deep-laid plot on the part of the Government to hand over the Intercolonial to a private corporation, and its affection for this child of its own ingenuity leads it into a most ardent and commendable spirit of sympathetic loyalty to that unfortunate railway. The deep gloom of its sudden sorrow is broken only by the flashes of its noble wrath as it worries on through something more than a column of mingled lamentation and suspicion.

The major portion, and considerably the better portion of the Telegram's article consists of quotations from Liberal journals which suggest that some change of system should be made to stop the long procession of annual deficits which have comprised the history of the Intercolonial regardless of party ascendancy. Not a word nor line in one of the quotations indicates any intention on the part of the Government to part with the Intercolonial by gift or otherwise. The school to which the Telegram belongs however never permit the fine workings of the imagery to be balked by unromantic facts. The motto above their portal is "Charge the Government in season and out, regardless of cause, fact or consequence."

In this case the tender susceptibilities of the Telegram appear to have been entirely unnecessarily disturbed. A Canadian Government-owned railway was once given to a private corporation, but not by a Liberal Government. Upon this plank of the Opposition platform Liberals cast no envious eyes. All the distinction of that memorable precedent belongs to the Telegram and its friends, and to them will be the credit for any similar transference in the future.

PROBABLE CANDIDATE IN LEDUC

Mr. R. T. Telford of Leduc was in town Saturday, Mr. Telford who is a probable candidate for Leduc in the Provincial elections is one of the Old Timers of the district having resided in Northern Alberta for about twenty years. He was the first settler in Leduc having located there in July 1892. From 1891 to 1894 he acted as land guide and located many of the settlers in that district free of cost. He was instrumental in having the Leduc district formed and has been prominent in all forward movements in that thriving village. During the past four years his representations to the Territorial Government have resulted in securing substantial aid for road and other improvements. Mr. Telford should make a strong candidate and a good representative.

Alberta Constituencies

Ottawa, June 26.—The consideration of the autonomy bills giving a provincial government to Alberta was resumed today. The premier moved the adoption of the schedule attached to the Alberta bill, which defines the boundaries of the provincial constituencies, to elect the first legislature of the new province.

Hon. Mr. Foster, who was leading the opposition in Mr. Borden's absence, asked for the general principles upon which the government had acted in this matter.

Mr. W. F. Maclean said that there was a rumor that the Government intended leaving the adjustment of these districts to a commission of judges. The premier showed that this rumor was like a good many others appearing in Mr. Maclean's newspaper, that the public would do well to take with a grain of salt. Sir Wilfrid went on to say that the leader of the opposition had made, when the schedules were presented, such a suggestion as Mr. Maclean referred to. He (Sir Wilfrid) had expressed no opinion thereon, but had remarked that in any case it was better for the House to examine the case itself to ascertain whether a satisfactory understanding could not be reached. For his own part, he still thought that these schedules were composed with so much care that very little improvement could be made. Mr. Foster asked the government for all the information it could give as to the principles followed and the manner in which they had been applied.

TWENTY-FIVE MEMBERS.

The premier explained that in laying down the lines of the new electoral districts, the government kept in mind the existing condition of things. The people of the North-West Territories already possessed a legislative with a membership of 35, 20 of whom were drawn from the new province of Saskatchewan, and 15 from the new province of Alberta. Hereafter each of the provincial legislatures would have a membership of 25. In addition to the existing conditions, the government had to consider the geography and the population of the districts. "Necessarily it was impossible to frame districts of equal area, because, aside from the northern district of Athabasca, an effort had been made to divide by a unit of representation. Athabasca, however, was a region of such large extent and scant population that it had been judged impracticable to apply the same unit of representation thereto.

"Yes," remarked Mr. W. F. Maclean, "but what political considerations influenced the government in laying down those districts?"

"The only political consideration," answered the premier, "that influenced us was justice and fair play."

Hon. Mr. Oliver answered Mr. Foster that each of the new provinces possessed a population of 250,000. Each would have a legislature of 25 members. Of the votes cast last November the unit could be over 800.

Mr. Foster questioned again as to which of the present territorial constituencies remained unchanged in the new arrangement.

The premier answered that in Alberta the districts were Medicine Hat, Cardston, Lethbridge, Pincher Creek, High River.

MR. FOSTER MAKES A THREAT.
Mr. Foster said that no progress would be made with the bill unless more satisfactory explanations were made. He threatened to oppose the bill until such time as this was done.

Mr. Oliver—The map has been before the House for five or six weeks, and also the schedules. I stated the basis upon which the representation was to be made, and if this is not satisfactory, the honorable gentleman should show why. The members from the west on the Liberal side had rights which they would see were carried out with the proper dignity of the house notwithstanding the threats of Mr. Foster.

After some additional remarks from Foster, Sir Wilfrid Laurier ran over the constituencies, showing that a great many of them were unchanged. Among these he mentioned High River, Medicine Hat, Cardston, Lethbridge, Pincher Creek, etc. Sir Wilfrid gave the figures for the different constituencies, showing that the redistribution was made on a very fair basis. At the last general election the total votes on the lists were 29,950, and the votes polled 20,962, out of a total population of 69,444. The estimated population now was 250,000.

Mr. Foster asked how the population was figured out at 250,000.

Mr. Oliver said that it was done by the Interior department.

The premier said that taking the population the Alberta unit was about 3,000, according to votes registered 1,700 and votes polled 900.

MR. MCCARTHY'S AMENDMENT.
Mr. McCarthy complained that Southern Alberta was discriminated against. He argued that there should be fifteen members south of township 39, and ten north, and moved an amendment that the redistribution of the constituencies should be left to three supreme court judges.

Mr. Oliver, in reply, said that while the member for Calgary had advanced a long, although fallacious argument, it was not to be taken seriously.

argument for giving greater representation in the south as compared with the north, he offered no argument for leaving the redistribution to the judges. As to his having made any recommendations to the government in the matter, he or those associated with him had no apologies to offer. As for the Conservatives from the west, they refused to join in a discussion on the subject, when asked to do so.

Mr. McCarthy denied that he had been asked to do so.

Mr. Oliver said that he was under the impression he had asked Mr. McCarthy to discuss the matter, certainly he had asked Mr. Herron.

Mr. Herron admitted that this was correct.

Mr. Scott said that at a conference in room 48 when Mr. Haultain and Mr. McCarthy were present the question of redistribution was discussed. Mr. McCarthy took so little interest in the matter that he forgot all about it.

ABSURD CONTENTIONS.

Mr. Oliver went on to show that the contentions of Mr. McCarthy were absurd. For instance, he (McCarthy) said that because there was a railway and irrigation works going on that meant large population, and consequently greater representation. But as a matter of fact, for 200 miles of this railway, there were only 700 votes cast, and the reason of the irrigation works was because that part of the country had not been good for settlement. Allowances had to be made for prospective population. This had been done when the Dominion redistribution took place in the Northwest before the last general election. Mr. Oliver went through all the constituencies, showing that he had a perfect knowledge of the entire country and that the distribution of the constituencies was just and fair. The south was valuable as a ranching country. Ranching country would not have the same population as a farming country. What the government had done was to give representation according to population, diversity of interest, area and prospect.

A Strange Suicide

Regina, June 21.—The people of Southern Assiniboia were given a real sensation a few days ago by a man committing suicide. He jumped into the river near Frohisher and was drowned.

According to the Alameda Dispatch on Tuesday a man came to the home of W. Wallis on the Souris river, and had supper there, afterwards sleeping at an neighbor's. On Wednesday morning he asked his host to sell him a gun, and not being supplied, requested a rope with the words that he "had to hang anyway, and it might as well occur now." Obtaining the rope he scrambled off to Mr. Wallis' place, and asked for some tobacco, which was supplied him, whereupon he proceeded to roll a cigarette, asking at the same time if there was any objection to his taking a bath in the river. Obtaining permission to bathe he walked down to the bank and sat under a tree smoking while the men went on with their work.

Happening to glance in the direction of the stranger, Mrs. Wallis saw the man rise and walk to the edge of the river and jump in, clothes and all on. She immediately called to Mr. Wallis who ran to the bank and saw the man's hat floating on the water.

The river was then dragged, but the body was not recovered until evening. Word was then sent to town and on Thursday the body was taken to Alameda and buried the next day.

No cause can be assigned for the act unless by the man's words when asking for the rope, he was wanted by the American authorities for there is no doubt he came from the other side. He had on his person $20 and a few cents in American money.

The deceased was a man about 35, five feet six inches in height, dark complexion, black hair, and mustache. He was a heavy set man, and went by the name of Allan Joseph.

VERMILION NEWS

Dr. Goodwin, accompanied by Mrs. Goodwin, came in from Vegreville last week and left for home again today. Rain has been plentiful in the Vermilion, and crops are good. The gaps in the grade between Lloydminster and Vegreville are rapidly being closed and the whole force will be shifted to the last section of the grade in a few weeks. A considerable amount of grading has been done at the crossing of the Beaver Creek, where work began about a month since on a ten mile contract. The line crosses the creek between the mines and the ferry. Dr. Goodwin was through the Blackfoot Hills a few days since, where the heavy grading work is being crowded with large numbers of men and teams. A Conservative convention was held last week at which Mr. Fane, of Beaver Lake, is said to have been selected a candidate for the Provincial elections. The Liberal convention will be held at Vegreville on July 11.

Scenes From El Capitan

EDMONTON RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Practice took place as usual on Saturday afternoon. An easterly wind was blowing, which, as the range is partially protected on that side and the wind was somewhat unsteady in force, kept the marksmen on the alert. Added to this there were changes of light caused by passing clouds, alternating with bright sunlight, making changes in elevation, as well as windage, so that the scores put on represent very steady and careful work, and are equal to several points more under more favorable conditions.

WESTERN NEWS NOTES

—Innisfree Free Lance: Several of our contemporaries are shouting for a "non-partisan" legislature for Alberta. Non-partisan governments have always been more or less of a farce, and we suppose always will be. Anyway, after the famous declaration at the Moose Jaw convention, how can a legislature without partisanship be thought of?

—Wetaskiwin Post: The present organization known as the North West Gas and Oil Co., at present operating in Edmonton and holding a provisional franchise from the town of Wetaskiwin, conditional upon their commencing operations within six months from June 15, have a plant capable of drilling all the way from 50 to 200 feet per day under favorable conditions. The secretary of the company informs us that it is their full intention to experiment at Wetaskiwin at an early date. In the event of this company drilling one or two thousand feet as is probable, we may have the artesian well problem solved for us by the company, but in any event we strongly urge that this proposition of a waterworks system be considered, for 1905, naturally and necessarily together with the question of extended powers of borrowing and repayment which we think should be obtained any way.

—Didsbury Pioneer—A special car containing some American capitalists and others visited Didsbury in the last week. We understand that they represented a big elevator concern which intend building elevators at Didsbury and other towns along the line. These capitalists realize what great possibilities there are here for grain and all kinds, and as they are generally a shrewd set of business men it can be taken for granted that this district is capable of holding its own for grain raising in Alberta. The local company also intend going ahead with their elevator which they expect to get started about the middle of August. This elevator is to hold 27,000 bushels, and will be built on the latest plans. By all accounts of the fall wheat crop has been down this year, and which is making a splendid showing so far, two elevators will no more than accommodate all the grain, and we wish them all success in their undertaking.

CRICKET

The Bankers were only narrowly defeated on Saturday by the city team. At one time it appeared possible that they might even win. The Bankers made 61, the City 78, but with three men to be put out and with four runs still required by the latter to win, Bopes, senior, skied a ball high over the bowler's head. The catch should have been made but for a misunderstanding. It ought to be mentioned that two substitutes had to be found on the ground to complete the bankers eleven, two of their side being prevented from playing. For them, however, Remington and Reid were very useful, the former's bowling being quite sensational toward the close. The club team put on as many as 38 for the first wicket before a neat catch by Jellett dismissed Bopes Jr. The score was 59 when the third wicket fell, Mountfield being caught in the deep field for 26. A large score appeared probable. Wickets, however, fell fast and there were seven men out and the score only 55. The total eventually reached 78.

The thanks of the club are due to Mrs. Edmonston, Mrs. Secord, Mrs. Hardisty, Mrs. Slocock and Mrs. Bergin, as well as to Mr. A. W. Jones, for supplying refreshments which were much enjoyed.

HOT AIR FURNACES

If you have any idea of heating your house with hot air, it will pay you to look into the "PEASE."

This Furnace is considered one of the very best made, and when installed by a first class mechanic is sure to give satisfaction. Ross Bros are the sole agents for this district, and they employ none but the best workmen, as some of the following testimonials from some of our best known citizens should convince you. We have a large number of these testimonials, every one of which is from gentlemen who have used the PEASE FURNACE.

We put a large number in Edmonton during last year, and in every instance the purchasers were well pleased, and do not hesitate to speak in the highest terms of them.

Ross Bros.,
Gentlemen:—

Replying to yours re the furnace I purchased from you and which your workmen put in my store (The Hudson Bay Store) I am well satisfied with it. The store is 35 x 40, with a 15 foot ceiling, plate glass front, and when the thermometer stood a 22 below zero the store was easily heated to 90 degrees. The workmanship is first class in every particular. The fuel consumed is small considering the results we get. There is no smoke or leakage of gas, and the furnace is very easily managed. I can heartily recommend your furnace to any intending purchaser, as I am sure there can be no fault found with them.

Yours truly,
MALCOLM Groat.

Ross Bros.,
Gentlemen:—

Regarding the warm air furnace which you installed in my house. I may say that I am perfectly satisfied with it. I had no difficulty whatever in heating the whole house in all kinds of weather. No heat is wasted in the cellar, and I had no trouble with the pipes not working in windy weather. I find it easy to manage, and economical on fuel, and were I to build again, I would have no other kind of furnace, and I would recommend it to any person wanting one.

Yours truly,
W. H. COOPER.

Ross Bros., Limited,
Gentlemen:—

The furnace you placed in my house last year has given us the very best of satisfaction, and every room in the house is evenly heated, and I find that it burns the Edmonton coal very economically, and is easy to manage and free from dust or gas. I would cheerfully recommend it to anyone.

Yours truly,
KING POWELL.

Ross Bros., Limited,
Gentlemen:—

The Furnace you placed in the house I live in (owned by J. N. Pomerleau) has given us perfect satisfaction. In fact we can make it too warm to live in if we were to let the Furnace burn freely, and have never been troubled with either smoke, gas or dust. I find it very easy to manage, and I am certain we could not keep the house as comfortable with stoves on anything like the same amount of fuel, and would recommend it to any person wanting a good Furnace.

Yours truly,
J. B. MERCER.

Ross Bros.,
Gentlemen:—

After using your Furnace all winter it gives me great pleasure to recommend it to any one. I used another make of Furnace for four years in the same house, previous to getting this furnace from you, and find your Furnace a great improvement over the old one. I find it free from dust, gas or smoke, and easy to manage, and that the grate burns the Edmonton coal perfectly. My house is more evenly heated with only a little over half the fuel, and I might say that the material and workmanship in connection with the installation of the Furnace is of the best.

Yours truly,
R. J. MANSON.

Messrs. Ross Bros.,
Gentlemen:—

The Furnace you installed in my house last summer has given me perfect satisfaction in every respect, and free from gas or dust, and find that I got more heat from less fuel out of your Furnace than I could from the old Furnace you took out. Therefore would cheerfully recommend your Furnace to any person wanting one.

Yours truly,
C. W. CROSS.

Ross Bros.,
Gentlemen:—

The hot air heating system that you installed in my hotel, has proved to be all and more than you represented it to be, and would not change it for the old system if I had to pay double what it cost me, as I find your Furnace only uses about half the amount of coal that the old Furnace used. In fact one Furnace now heats the whole hotel, except in extreme cold weather, while it took both the old Furnaces going full blast all the time to heat the hotel other winters.

I find your furnace not only a fuel saver, but easy to manage, free from dust, smoke or gas, and would be pleased to recommend it to any person wanting one.

Yours truly,
J. J. MELLON, Strathcona.

LIBERALS ORGANIZE

Fort Saskatchewan Reporter: A convention of Liberals for the selection of a candidate to represent the Liberal party in the coming provincial elections in the district of Saskatchewan was held at Weyburn on Saturday, 17th June. Every polling sub-division in the riding was represented by from one to six delegates and a number of prominent Liberals were in attendance besides the delegates. The committee on credentials finished its work well before the hour appointed for the convention and so much harmony and good feeling prevailed that the convention itself only lasted one hour and forty minutes including the time occupied in forming and organizing a District Liberal Association. Only two candidates, Dr. P. Aylen and Mr. F. A. Walker, both of the Fort, were nominated and after the first ballot, in which Mr. Walker received a majority of votes, he was declared on motion, the unanimous choice of the convention.

The following officers and executive were chosen for the District Liberal Association.

Honorary President, John Flaker.
President, W. A. D. Lees.
Vice-Presidents, Dr. A. E. Archer, S. Richardson, Dr. P. Aylen, and K. A. Morrison.

Strathcona Fryed

Plaintiff: A man by the name of Fry who has attained some notoriety in the West as a checker player, and hot air monger, was among the tenders for the excavation and filling-in work of the Strathcona water and sewerage systems, a few weeks ago. Thanks to the wisdom of our city fathers, Mr. Fry's tender, though one of the lowest was not accepted. Had he stayed away from Strathcona altogether, or have been content to submit his tender quietly, he might have been awarded a contract. However, Mr. Fry is afflicted with a most unfortunate temperament and given to bragging, bull-dozing, profanity and most objectionable lobbying that did not impress the Strathcona council favorably. The, enquired into his record and felt fully justified in exercising the privilege they had of accepting a tender that was higher than his.

The foregoing remarks would be out of order, but for the fact that Mr. Fry has rushed into the public print at Moose Jaw with a two column article that has been copied by the Edmonton Journal venting his spleen upon the town of Strathcona for declining to give him the contract he so ardently desired. By his letter, which purports to be an interview, Mr. Fry has revealed to the public from one end of the Territories to the other the size of his character which was hitherto only known to those who had met him personally. In introducing his tale of woe to a disinterested public he goes out of his way to cast odium upon the town of Strathcona though he was evidently satisfied with its ability to pay the price of the work he so anxiously desired to contract for.

Mr. Fry finds fault with the methods of the Strathcona council, but his accusations are the vapourings of a disgruntled job seeker who had underestimated the intelligence of the men with whom he was dealing. The council was too deliberate and careful in considering the tenders of that work to suit Mr. Fry. He did not approve of the council considering the tenders, the financial standing of the several contractors, their integrity and other qualifications in private rather than with the eight or ten men present who were in competition for the work. He submitted an amended and reduced tender, and apparently expected it to be considered without a similar privilege being extended to his competitors. When the council accorded the same privilege to all Mr. Fry hobbled up with a third and still lower tender, a fact which, taken with his general conduct, impressed upon the council the idea that they were dealing with a professional who might be too slick for them, moreover they knew him by reputation. Mr. Fry's fluency in the language of the gambling house, so extensively used in his letter, gives him a place among a class who are shunned by reputable business men, especially when appropriating trust funds. The gent is sore on Edmonton because he failed to get a second contract in that enterprising city. What does he take the municipal governments of these northern cities for anyway? The ratepayers of Strathcona are very satisfied with the action of their council.

—Mr. Geo. P. Smith, of Duhamel, was in Edmonton this week. Mr. Smith has disposed of his last shipment of furs. There were upwards of 5,000 rats and about $1400 worth of mixed fur in the lot and four wagons were required to freight the bunch to Edmonton. There was a fine silver fox amongst others. This particular skin realized something like $200. Mr. Smith has bought 125,000 rats in all this season.
